

Jeremy T. Bell, PA-C

Experience	2000-Present: Midwest Orthopaedic Consultants, S.C. <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Responsibilities include 1st assist in OR, assisting with inpatient and outpatient care of orthopaedic patients</li></ul> 2002-2003 Midwest Emergency Associates <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Part time Emergency Room and Urgent Care</li></ul> 1975-2000: U.S. Navy Physician Assistant/Hospital Corpsman
Education	1992: George Washington University, Washington, DC Bachelor of Science, Physician Assistant <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Graduated Summa Cum Laude</li><li>• 12 Month clinical rotation at Naval Hospital, San Diego, CA in: Family Practice, Emergency Medicine, Orthopedics, Sports Medicine, General Surgery, Internal Medicine, Pediatrics, Otolaryngology, Ophthalmology, Gynecology, Urology, Psychiatry, and Drug/Alcohol Rehabilitation.</li></ul>
Affiliations	American Association of Physician Assistants American Society of Orthopaedic Physicians Assistants Navy Association of Physician Assistants
Certifications	Current: NCCPA, ACLS, BCLS, Illinois PA license, DEA license

Jeremy T. Bell, PA-C

Military Assignment Chronology

- 1998-2000      Physician Assistant, Family Medicine Clinic, Naval Medical Clinic Key West Florida.
Duties include Family Practice and Primary liaison between the Clinic and the Orthopedic Department at Naval Hospital Jacksonville, FL. Assisting visiting surgeons during their monthly visits, and providing postoperative follow-up for surgical patients. Chairman, Disaster Preparedness Committee and Chairman, Planning Board for Training.
- 1996-1998      Officer in Charge and Physician Assistant, Hadnot Point Branch Clinic, Camp Lejuene, NC. In addition to personally treating over 500 patients a month, responsible for the overall operation and management of an outpatient clinic that provided outpatient care to approximately 23,000 active duty sailors and marines. Supervised 3 physicians, 3 PA's, 28 hospital corpsman and 5 civilian personnel. The facilities included laboratory, xray, pharmacy, audiology services, optometry clinic and optical lab.
- 1992-1996      Physician Assistant, Military Medicine Clinic, Naval Medical Clinic, Key West, FL. Duties included general outpatient practice. Responsible for the diagnosis and treatment of illnesses, Occupational Health, performing minor surgical procedures, and training Hospital Corpsman. Primary liaison between the Clinic and the Orthopedic Department at Naval Hospital Jacksonville, FL, assisting visiting surgeons during their monthly visits and providing postoperative follow-up for surgical patients. Health Promotion Coordinator for the Branch Clinic and Naval Air Station.

1990-1992

Student, Physician Assistant School, Naval School of Health Science, San Diego, CA. Accredited by George Washington University, Washington DC. Twelve months of academics, included the following subjects: Anatomy and Physiology, Neurology, Pediatrics, Pulmonary Medicine, Orthopedics, Rheumatology, Pharmacy, Endocrinology, Patient Assessment/Physical Diagnosis, Psychiatry, Clinical Laboratory, Pathology, Obstetrics, Gynecology, Ophthalmology, Allergy, Gastroenterology, Urology, Hematology, Oncology, Cardiology, Medical Terminology, Issues in Health Care, Dermatology, General Surgery, Otolaryngology, Biochemistry, Infectious Disease, Microbiology, Nephrology, and Emergency Medicine. Twelve months Clinical Rotation in the following specialty areas: Family Practice, Internal Medicine, Emergency Medicine, Orthopedics, General Surgery, Otolaryngology, Obstetrics, Gynecology, Pediatrics (Ams in Pediatric Acute Care and PMs with the following pediatric specialties: Neurology, Hematology, Endocrinology, Cardiology, Gastroenterology, Allergy, and Growth and Development), Urology, Tumor Board, Psychiatry, Drug and Alcohol Rehabilitation, Ophthalmology, and Sports Medicine.

- 1989-1990 Health Care Provider and Leading Chief Petty Officer at Ray Hall Branch Clinic, Quantico, VA. Responsible for providing Patient care and treatments, as well as assisting the Officer in Charge with Overseeing the day to day operation of the outpatient clinic. Facilities included General Medicine, Acute Care, Minor Surgery, Pharmacy, X-Ray, Medical Records Administration, and Physical Therapy.
- 1987 Student, Patient Administration School, Naval School of Health Sciences, Bethesda, MD. Studies included: Management and Supervision, Medical Records Administration, Patient Admissions and Dispositions, Decedent Affairs (including the inspection, Preparation, and handling of human remains), Operational Medicine, Medical Quality Assurance and Risk Management, CHAMPUS, and Health Benefits Counseling.
- 1986-1989 Head, Patient Administration, Branch Naval Hospital Sigonella, U.S. Naval Air Station, Sigonella, Italy (Sicily). Responsible for Patient Administration, Human Resource Management, Correspondence Control, Facility Maintenance, Decedent Affairs, Admissions, Inpatient Records, Aeromedical Evacuation, Patient Satisfaction, Health Benefits Advice (CHAMPUS), and Collections. Performed after hours duty as Administrative Watch Officer, Emergency Room Provider, and Inflight Medical Attendant for Emergency aeromedical evacuations.

1985-1986

Student, Advanced Hospital Corps School (Independent Duty School), Naval School of Health Sciences, Portsmouth, VA. Received training in Medical and Surgical Conditions, Food Sanitation Inspections, Water Sanitation and Treatment, Sewage Disposal, Communicable Diseases, Dental Fundamentals, Industrial Hygiene and Chemicals, Chemical and Biological Warfare Defense, Surface Radiation Health, Health Education, Patient Disposition, Health Resources, Health Records, Medical Supply, Alcohol and Drug Abuse, Anatomy and Physiology, Advanced Techniques in Cardiac Resuscitation, Clinical Practice, Naval Shipboard Organization, Physical Diagnosis, Clinical Laboratory Techniques and Procedures, Pharmacology and Toxicology, Communications, Personnel Management, Performance Evaluations, English/Typing Review, and Aviation Physiology. Total hours: 1,840, Final Grade: 95.36.

1982-1985

Leading Petty Officer, Education and Training Department at Naval Hospital, Beaufort, SC. Duties included providing counseling on educational opportunities and continuing medical education; maintaining audiovisual equipment and training aids; planning, coordinating, and instructing professional and military training, CPR, and Emergency Medical Technician Course; overseeing the maintenance of individual training records and the documentation of all training within the facility. Direct supervision of five military personnel and one civilian librarian.

- 1982 Student, U.S. Navy Basic Instructor Training School, Fleet Training Center, Norfolk, VA. Received training on the preparation of lesson guides, basic Instructional methods, and the use of Training aids.
- 1979-1982 Independent Duty (without a physician) At Naval Facility Cape Hatteras, Buxton, NC. Duties included diagnosing and treating active duty patients, retirees, and their families, prescribing medications and treatments, performing routine laboratory procedures, and maintaining supplies. Performed after hours military duty by remaining on 24 hour call for medical emergencies.
- 1978-1979 Sickcall Corpsman, Camp Johnson Branch Clinic, NC. Responsible for diagnosing and treating minor illnesses, performing basic laboratory tests, filling routine pharmacy prescriptions, and maintaining health records. Performed after hours duty as an emergency ambulance attendant.
- 1976-1978 General Duty Corpsman, Physical Examination Center, Marine Corps Base. Camp Lejuene, NC. Duties included screening health records as well as performing and recording the various tests required for physical examinations such as eye tests, blood pressure, tenometry, venipuncture, and routine urinalysis. Performed after hours duty as an emergency ambulance attendant.

- 1975-1976      Pediatric Ward Corpsman, Naval Hospital, Camp Lejeune, NC. Responsible for inpatient care, medications, treatments, assisting physicians, ward cleaning details, and assisting with the orientation and training of new personnel.
- 1975              Student, Naval Hospital Corps School, Great Lakes, IL. Received training in Anatomy and Physiology, Pharmacology And Toxicology, Nursing Procedures, Fundamentals of Medicine, and Emergency Medical Care.

Military Awards

Navy Commendations Medals (2 Awards)
Navy Achievement Medal
US Coast Guard Meritorious Unit Commendation Medal (Operational)
Navy Good Conduct Medals (4 Awards)
National Defense Service Medals (2 Awards)
Navy Overseas Service Ribbons (3 Awards)
Navy Marksman Ribbon

Highest enlisted rank: Chief Hospital Corpsman
Highest commissioned rank: Lieutenant